

Exploring America Answer Key

The number in parentheses after an answer indicates the page number on which that answer is found in the text.

An AV before the page number indicates that the answer is found on that page in American Voices.

When an answer is found in one of the twelve suggested literature titles, the name of the book is listed.

Unit 1

Lesson 1

1. What are four reasons for studying history? History is our story; history helps us understand the present; history helps us learn from the past; God teaches us that history is important. (3-5)
2. What are some ways in which studying history helps you know more about yourself? We are descendants of immigrants; we are influenced by the section of the country in which we live; our grandparents' experiences influenced our parents and they influence us. (3-4)
3. How does learning about both heroes and charlatans help us? We are ennobled by those who have done good and convicted by those who have done wrong. (4)
4. How does history help us to evaluate what we hear from the media today? It helps us see that we have faced and survived other serious crises, that today's products may someday be only memories, and that today's brilliance may be tomorrow's nonsense. (4)
5. What did George Santayana say about people who cannot remember the past? They are condemned to repeat it. (5)
6. How are the abolitionist movement and the pro-life movement parallel? They both have stood for ideas that are out of the mainstream. (5)
7. What are some incidents in Scripture that show that history is important to God? Moses' reminders to the Israelites about events during their journey; Joshua's reminders of the Israelites' history; the Levites' prayer after the captives had returned from captivity; Stephen's defense before the Jewish leaders (5,6)
8. What was one purpose of the annual festivals that God commanded Israel to observe? To help their history be personal and help Israel stay faithful (6)
9. How is the timing of Jesus' coming presented in the Bible? At a specific time in history (6)
10. God is working out His plan for human history until when? Until time on earth ends and eternity begins (6)

Questions on "Knowing History and Knowing Who We Are"

1. What did McCullough mean when he said that no one has ever lived in the past? People never think of themselves as living in the past. Everyone lives in the present—their present. (394)

2. What information did the student at the University of Missouri learn from McCullough? That all of the thirteen original colonies were on the east coast (396)
3. What did McCullough say we need to know in order to know who we are and where we are headed? We have to know who we were.
4. Where did McCullough say that the teaching and the appreciation of history should begin? At home (397)
5. What did Abigail Adams say would have been unpardonable in John Quincy Adams? For him to turn out to be a blockhead with all of the opportunities he had had (400)

Lesson 2

1. The hand of God guides, blesses, protects, and chastens. What are four other threads that weave through the story of America? Expansion, power and control, a mixture of good and evil, ethnocentricity (7,8)
2. In what four ways has America expanded? Geographic, cultural, intellectual, personal rights (7)
3. What are some of the prices that have been paid for American expansion? As America has expanded, Native Americans have been treated shamefully. Economic expansion came at the expense of slaves,
4. What are some examples of the exercise of power and control in American history? People immigrated so they could own property and businesses. Blacks had few rights because of the desire of whites to control. Political parties want to control government. (8)
5. What are some examples of people and events being a mixture of good and evil? Bill Clinton helped economic growth but was a moral failure. Industrial growth helped people materially, but workers suffered. (8)
6. What is ethnocentricity? The tendency of a people to see their ways as better than others. (8)
7. What does the phrase "the fabric of history" mean? Lives and events are connected with what happened yesterday and they influence what will happen tomorrow. (10)
8. Why do we see the same issues over and over again? Because people are the same as they have always been. (10)
9. In what sense does history not repeat itself? Every situation is unique in some way. (10)
10. What does learning from the patterns of history help us do? It helps us to live well in today's world. (10)

Lesson 3

2. What did Copernicus establish in his studies? He demonstrated that the earth orbits around the sun. (57)
3. How did Copernicus and Galileo challenge traditional Catholic teaching? The Catholic church taught that the sun orbits the earth; Copernicus and Galileo showed that this was not the case. (57-58)
4. What did Isaac Newton establish in his studies? That the world operates on the basis of regular scientific laws, such as gravity (57-58)
5. How did some scientists and philosophers interpret these discoveries in relation to the will of God? They interpreted these discoveries to mean that scientific laws were the real basis for the operation of the universe, not the will of God. (58)
6. In what two ways did John Locke apply natural law to human society? He said that people and societies could be changed by education and the application of reason and that political power rested with the people on the basis of social contracts, not with kings. (58-59)
7. What new thinking emerged in the Enlightenment about kings and government? That hereditary monarchy was not a rational form of government (59)
8. How did the Enlightenment challenge traditional thinking about God and religion? Enlightenment thought held that faith was not scientific or rational. (59)
9. What new ideas arose during the Enlightenment about man? Man was moved to the center of science and world affairs. (57)
10. How have modern events challenged Enlightenment ideas? Studies of the atom and of the universe; the realities of such things as love, joy, and hope; and the calamities of war, the Holocaust, and Communism in the twentieth century all challenged a strictly rational approach to life. (60)

Lesson 12

1. What issue was fundamental in leading to the American Revolution? Who held power in the colonies and how the colonies were to be governed (62)
2. Who had ultimate political authority in the colonies at first? The king and appointed governors (63)
3. Who made up the governor's council of advisors? Wealthy colonists who were appointed by the king (62)
4. Who was allowed to vote for assembly members? Free males who owned a certain amount of property (63)
5. What was the difference of view over the source of power for colonial assemblies? The British government believed that the assemblies ruled by the permission of the king, while colonists believed that the assemblies ruled by the consent of the governed. (63)
6. What administrative change angered New Englanders? The creation of the Dominion of New England to govern the region from London (64)
7. How was the situation resolved? The governor was imprisoned and the colonies resumed their former way of governing. (64)
8. For what was John Peter Zenger put on trial? Seditious libel for printing criticism of the royal governor in his newspaper. (64)
9. What was the outcome of the trial and its impact on freedom of the press? Zenger was found not guilty, and the verdict encouraged colonial newspapers to publish more criticism of public officials. (64)
10. What were the issues involved in Bacon's Rebellion? Constant threat of Indian attack, conflict over western settlement policy, growing willingness of colonists to defy governmental authority (65)

Lesson 13

9. What did France do a few years after losing the war? France helped the United States in the Revolutionary War against England. (68)

10. What was the purpose of the Albany Plan of Union? To make sure that the colonies fought together under the leadership of the king. (68)

Bible Assignment: Write down how these passages either support or differ from Edwards' main point: Micah 7:18 says that God delights to show mercy, but Edwards seemed to say that God delights in sending people to hell. Matthew 7:22-27 describes people who go through the motions of religious activity but are not truly following Christ. Mark 9:42-50—Jesus teaches that the disobedient will be lost in eternal punishment. John 3:16 emphasizes God's love in sending Jesus so that people do not have to perish. Romans 1:18 reminds us that God has wrath against ungodliness. Hebrews 12:25-29 teaches that God is a consuming fire.

Lesson 14

1. How was life in the American colonies similar to that in England? Same language and culture, same legal system, same trades and social classes; belief in representative government and individual rights; upper class American sons often educated in England; colonists saw selves as subjects of the crown
2. How was it different? No royalty in America; Americans envisioned new possibilities for their lives; the frontier experience, including log cabins and Indian skirmishes (71)
3. What British policies irritated the colonists? The standing army in the colonies, with troops quartered in private homes. (70)
4. Give some examples of laws passed by Parliament in the years after the French and Indian War. Royal control over laws passed by colonial assemblies, writs of assistance, colonies not allowed to print money, new taxes passed. (72-73)
5. What was the Proclamation of 1763? The king forbade any settlement by English subjects west of the crest of the Appalachian Mountains. (73)
6. Why did the proclamation frustrate the colonists? Many colonists wanted to settle the western region. They thought that they had fought the French and Indian War to be able to do so, but now it was forbidden. (73)
7. Why did many colonists oppose taxes on domestic activities within the colonies passed by Parliament? They believed that such taxes were wrong and could not be enacted by Parliament. (73)
8. What was the Boston Massacre? A confrontation between Boston citizens and British soldiers.
9. Why did Americans oppose the Tea Act? Because it allowed the East India Company to dump cheap tea onto the colonial market, thus making the colonies dependent on the British company for tea. (75)
10. What did the First Continental Congress meet to oppose? The Coercive or Intolerable Acts (75)

Bible Assignment: Read Nehemiah Chapter 8. List three things that the Jews either had to change or needed to restore in order to return to God's pattern.

Listen to God's Word, seek to understand it, and put it into practice (e.g., celebrating the Feast of Booths).

Lesson 15

1. How did religious practices change in the American colonies from their founding to the mid-1700s? A general decline. Factors included worldliness and church becoming a social institution, rough and tumble lifestyle of western settlements. (77)

6. Over what issue did some denominations divide? Whether to endorse the revival or not. (78)
7. What was one direction taken by theological liberals? The formation of Unitarian and Universalist churches. (78)
8. What kind of institutions were begun to train ministers? Give some examples. Colleges; Princeton, Columbia, Brown, Rutgers, and Dartmouth (79)
9. How did the Great Awakening help to mold a particularly American expression of the Christian faith? Revivalist preaching, multifaceted Christianity, individual decisions, hope for the millennium (79-80)
10. What need did the Great Awakening reveal? The need for spiritual revival (77)

Questions on The Scarlet Letter

1. What tone is set by the essay, "The Customs House"? A dark, sad, and musty tone
2. What is the significance of the essay to the novel itself? Hawthorne tells how he got the idea for the story.
3. What wrong attitudes did the people of the community demonstrate toward Hester? They were hateful and unforgiving toward her.
4. Describe Pearl, Hester's daughter. Pearl was strong-willed. Some thought that she was a devil-child as retribution for the sin which conceived her.
5. What did Roger Chillingworth take as his life purpose? To find out the secrets of Arthur Dimmesdale's life and to seek revenge for what he had done with Hester.
6. Who was the father of Hester's child? Dimmesdale
7. In what ways were people mistaken about the character of Dimmesdale? They believed that he could do no wrong. They thought he was strong but in fact he was weak.

8. How did Dimmesdale try to atone for his sin? He carved an A on his chest and stood on the scaffold at night.
9. What did Hester and Dimmesdale plan to do? They planned to run away to Europe together.
10. What happened to Dimmesdale? He died before he was able to leave the community.
11. What happened to Chillingworth? He died within a year of Dimmesdale's death and left an inheritance for Pearl.
12. What happened to Pearl? She moved to Europe and was not directly heard from again.
13. What happened to Hester? She left for many years; but later she returned to the community, helped many people, and died there.
14. What does the novel say about Puritan New England? It shows the failings of a community that was supposedly built on faith in Christ.
15. Why was the identity of Pearl's father such a non-issue to many in the community? Their focus was on Hester's sin. One key factor might have been that men were leaders of the community.
16. What does the book say about the effect of sin that is confessed as opposed to sin that is kept hidden? Hester was able to admit her responsibility for her sin and move on in her life. Dimmesdale kept his sin hidden and it eventually destroyed him.
17. How did Hester show strength of character despite her sin? She took the responsibility for rearing Pearl; she helped others; she did not strike back when others reviled her.
18. Why do you think Hester didn't simply leave the community? Among the possible answers are: She loved Arthur and wanted to be near him; life outside of the community would have been even more difficult.

6. How does Calhoun say the Union can be preserved? By protecting the rights of the South regarding slavery (AV 173-175)

Bible Assignment: Read 1 Corinthians 12:4-27. List three positive attitudes that are taught in this passage about the different gifts or abilities that God gives us. The gifts that other people have complement our gifts. Instead of competing with other believers, we should be cooperating. We can support each other in suffering and celebrate with each other in blessing. Other answers possible.

Lesson 54

1. What was the Ostend Manifesto? A statement of the interest by the U.S. in purchasing or taking Cuba (299)
2. Who was elected President in 1856 and what party did he represent? James Buchanan, Democrat (299)
3. Who was the main opposition in the election, and what party did he represent? John C. Fremont, Republican (299)
4. Describe the Dred Scott case. An Army officer had taken his slave, Dred Scott, into a free state and a free territory. Scott later sued to obtain his freedom on the grounds that his residence in free areas made him free. (299-300)
5. Summarize the Supreme Court's decision in the Dred Scott case. The Court said that Scott was not a citizen and thus did not have the right to sue; that blacks were not citizens; and that the Missouri Compromise had denied citizens of their right to property by declaring certain areas as free and thus was unconstitutional. (300)

6. What was the effect of the Dred Scott decision? The decision strengthened the belief of proslavery people that antislavery forces were trying to rob them of their constitutional rights. On the other hand, it affirmed to opponents of slavery their belief that the Federal government was controlled by people who wanted to protect and extend slavery. (300)
7. In what contest and in what year did the Lincoln-Douglas debates take place? The U.S. Senate race in Illinois in 1858 (301)
8. What was the outcome of that contest between Lincoln and Douglas? Douglas was chosen by the Illinois legislature. (302)

History Exam on Units 21-25

I. Write a brief paragraph explaining each of the following.

- Prohibition—Outlawing of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages. U.S. policy during the 1920s. Widely ignored. Illegal sale carried on by organized crime. Ended under Roosevelt.
- WPA (Works Progress Administration)—New Deal program that gave work to many people. Jobs included construction projects; artistic projects also funded.
- Social Security—New Deal program that provided unemployment, disability, and retirement benefits. Funded by taxes.
- Berlin Airlift—When Soviets blocked land access to West Berlin, U.S. airlifted food, fuel, and other supplies to the city for almost a year, 1948-1949. Soviets eventually backed down and re-opened the road.
- GI Bill—Law passed by Congress after World War II that provided medical, educational, housing and other benefits to veterans.
- Marshall Plan—Developed by Secretary of State George Marshall to help European countries rebuild after World War II. Prevented rise of new dictators and lessened Communist influence in western Europe.
- Cold War—Tense standoff between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. The two countries never fought each other directly, but the arms buildup by both nations increased tensions and the fear of a nuclear war. Both nations sought to influence other countries to be their allies.
- Battle of Britain—German bombing of the island of Great Britain during World War II and the resistance by the RAF and the British people. The bombing was carried out in anticipation of a German invasion of Britain, but British resistance was so strong and German losses so great that the invasion was called off.
- Brown v. Board of Education*—1954 U.S. Supreme Court decision that declared segregation in public schools to be unconstitutional. This was a landmark decision that recognized the inequality of educational opportunities for blacks and the need for greater civil rights for blacks. Implementation was slowed by white resistance to the decision, especially in the South.
- Sputnik—First man-made satellite to orbit the earth. Launched by the Soviet Union in 1957, it was a matter of concern to the U.S. because it indicated that the Communists were ahead of the U.S. in space technology. The U.S. responded with its own satellite the next year, the formation of NASA, and increased Federal funding for science education.

III. Korean War—Summary should include: At the end of World War II, Communists controlled North Korea and the U.S. controlled the south. In 1950 Communist North Korean troops invaded South Korea and pushed U.S. and South Korean forces to the southern tip of the peninsula. The U.N. called for help to repel the invasion. Allied forces led by Douglas MacArthur landed at Inchon and cut the supply lines of the Communists troops. The Allied forces pushed the Communists back to the Chinese border, but then Chinese troops invaded and pushed the Allies back to about the 38th parallel. Keeping South Korea free became the official American policy, but it was difficult for many Americans to accept the idea of a limited war. MacArthur wanted to bomb areas of China and use Taiwanese troops, but Truman resisted. When MacArthur publicly differed with Administration policy, Truman fired MacArthur. A cease-fire was finally declared in 1953, but no official peace agreement has been reached.

English Exam for Units 21-25

The point of this exam is to help the student begin to compare and contrast works of literature. The essay below shows some ways that this can be done. A big part of the grade for this exam should be for your student really trying to think about the assignment and putting those thoughts down in readable and logical form.

A suggested essay (about 400 words):

Miracle in the Hills and To Kill a Mockingbird are both set in the rural South in the early twentieth century. Miracle in the Hills is a memoir that tells about Eustace and Mary Sloop, a husband-and-wife doctor couple who blessed and transformed the Appalachian community of Crossnore for forty years. To Kill a Mockingbird is a novel set in the small town of Maycomb in southern Alabama that wrestles with the issue of prejudice. They both tell powerful stories but in different ways.

In both settings, community expectations are strong. The ways of doing things in Crossnore go back for generations. Most people saw no need for new schools, improved medical care, and other changes available in the twentieth century. In Maycomb social patterns are also firmly set, and to challenge them is to risk widespread disapproval. The prejudice in Crossnore is against outsiders; the prejudice in Maycomb is against blacks and any whites who extended them any unusual consideration. The Sloops brought many changes to Crossnore, and the people eventually accepted them. Mary Sloop led in bringing these changes, primarily through her willingness to press for change and her unwillingness to accept things as they were. The only changes perceptible in Maycomb were in the attitudes of Scout and Jem Finch, primarily through the words and actions of their father. Atticus Finch did not go on any campaigns for reform; he simply taught his children what he thought they needed to know and defended Tom Robinson against an unjust charge when he needed an attorney.

The children of Crossnore were the focus of Mary Sloop's effort to build schools, stop moonshine production, and end child marriages. She wanted to give the children of Crossnore the chance for a better life than they had known. To Kill a Mockingbird is told through the eyes of one child, Scout. By her words we learn the insights she gained about Boo Radley and her town. Both books remind us that children are dependent on adults to provide, protect, and guide them.

Miracle in the Hills shows what one person can do through determination and prayer to make a difference, even when longstanding social patterns are set against you. To Kill a Mockingbird shows us that when one person does what is right, he can live with himself, set an example for his children, and begin to push back the barriers of prejudice.

Bible Exam for Units 21-25

11. Jesus condemned the hypocrisy and faithless traditions of the religious leaders and their grip on the spiritual lives of the people. They had elevated their traditions to the level of the doctrines of God. Jesus honored many who were looked down upon socially in His day, such as women, the handicapped, Gentiles, and those who were seen as "sinners."
12. Answers will vary, but should include these ideas: All have sinned, but this does not mean that we should turn a blind eye to sin in the lives of leaders or of ourselves. We should expect integrity in public leaders. Each person answers to God for our lives, but we should be aware of our influence on others.
